Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1961, of the town of Fillmore, County of Putnam, and the State of Indiana, being of what we hesitate to call a sound mind (however, since we have to get this over with, we wish to be accepted as such for now), do ordain and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, thereby making any other wills null and void:

I, Bob Beaman, do hereby bequeath my little black book to Mike Ozment.

I, Janet Broadstreet, do hereby bequeath my height to Mrs. Goodman.

I, Rick Buchanan, do hereby bequeath to Paul David Isenberg my intelligence, studious abilities, clear understanding, and sound judgment.

I, Roland Buis, do hereby bequeath my big feet to anyone who wants them in exchange for some height.

I, Suzanne Butler, do hereby bequeath to Marjorie Skelton my ability to type 97 words a minute.

I, Karen Cash, do hereby bequeath to Jim Cash the relief of not having to act as my mailman to a fellow Kroger employee.

I, Raymond Campbell, do hereby bequeath to Jenny Field my brain for what it is worth.

I, James Chestnut, do hereby bequeath my ping-pong ability to Roger Skelton. He needs it badly.

I, Gretna Huber, do hereby bequeath my ability to lead cheers for F. H. S. to Jennifer Clark.

I, Donald Kendall, do hereby bequeath my ability to survive chemistry class one full year to anyone who can stand it.

I, Ronald Alan Meek, do hereby bequeath to Ralph Hutcheson my locker (No. 52), and hope he can get to it easier than I.

I, Nettie McCracken, do hereby bequeath my ability to chew gum in commerce class to anyone who can get by with it.

I, Marvin Ogle, do hereby bequeath my witty, sparkly, wonderfully clever personality to Patty Fowler in the hope that she will be as popular as I know I am.

I, Sandra Pickett, do hereby bequeath to Vividana Sheese my love for the Skelton family.

I, Barbara Puckett, do hereby bequeath to Mavis Runnells my "ability" to get along with Mrs. Goodman for five periods a day.

I, Carrol Roach, do hereby bequeath my ability to play baritone to Allen Sutherlin.

I, Jeneene Robinson, do hereby bequeath my ability to blush easily to anyone who is foolish enough to accept.

I, Bob Shaner, do hereby bequeath my locker mate, Barbara Hall, to anyone who will take her. (She's my cousin.)

I, Steven Stelzner, do hereby bequeath to Russel Frazier my ability to run track.

I, David Storm, do hereby bequeath nothing to nobody because I need it all.

I, Charles Tinch, do hereby bequeath my high speed in driving to Danny Cox.

I, Sharon Zeiner, do hereby bequeath to Twyla Greenlee my ability to safely cross streets in St. Louis.

I, Virginia Kumpf, do hereby bequeath my school books to Bill Kumpf in the hope that he can get more from them than I did.

I, Herbert Sutherlin, do hereby bequeath to Larry O'Hair my basketball ability.

I, Marvin Field, do hereby bequeath my typing ability to Bill Baxter.

We, the Seniors of Fillmore High School, do hereby subscribe to the above on this twentieth day of February, 1961.
